

Gait Analysis in the North

Department of Orthopaedics and
Regional Medical Physics Department
at the
Newcastle General Hospital

Directions to the Gait Analysis Unit

Attending an appointment at the Gait Analysis Unit based at Newcastle General Hospital

Newcastle General Hospital is easily accessible by car (with plenty of parking) and has bus stops to the front and rear of the site. The nearest Metro and railway station is Newcastle central station.

Park and ride in Newcastle.

If travelling from outside Newcastle, an option is to use the park and ride facility with the Metro train, however this will also involve a bus journey from the city centre.

You can phone Traveline North East for information on buses, trains and metros in the region. Their contact number is 0870 200 22 33.

Directions by car to Newcastle General Hospital

The hospital is off Westgate Road (A186) and is well signposted.

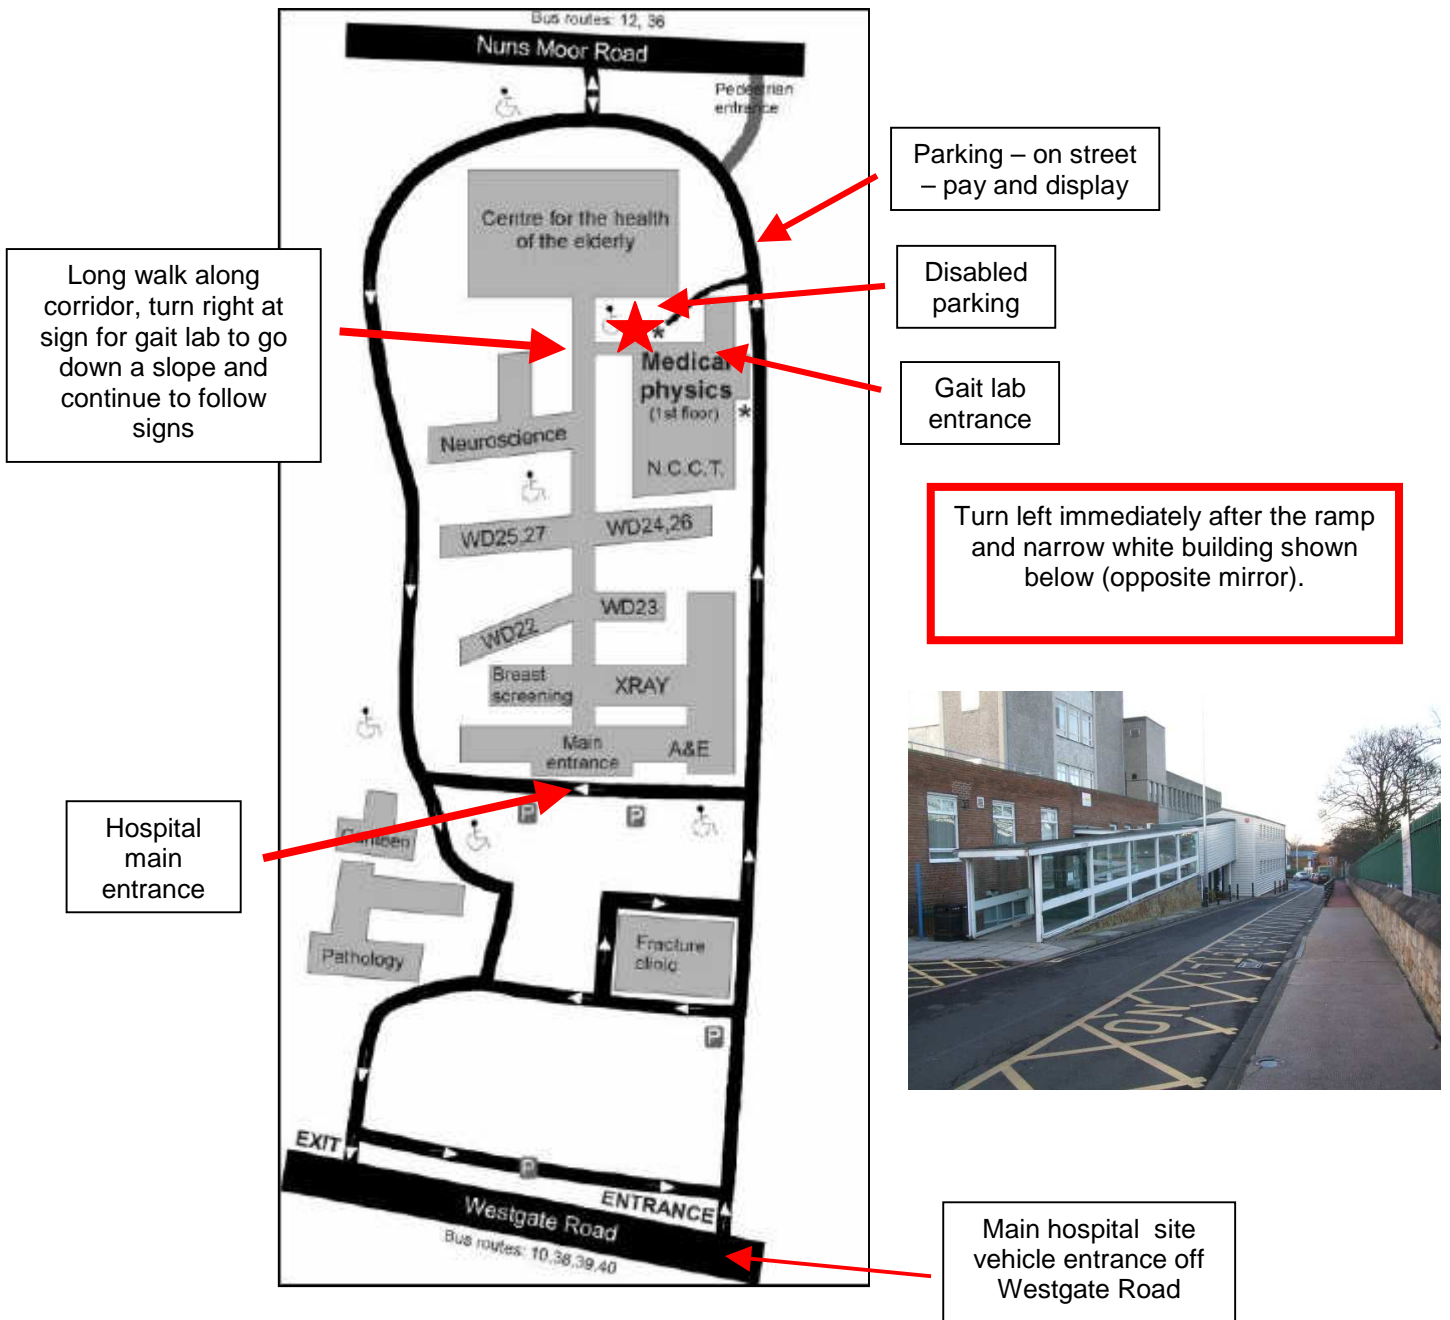

If you are using GPS, the postcode of the Hospital is NE4 6BE.

Car parking:

There is good parking on site with many disabled places. Disabled parking is free. Charges for non-disabled places are £1.10 per hour. The closest spaces to the gait lab are marked on the map below. Alternatively park at the front of the hospital and come in the main entrance.

Map of the Newcastle General Hospital site

The gait lab can be accessed directly at the back of the hospital where there is nearby parking or by the hospital main entrance and walking down the long corridor.
